3 stars for Destiny (Rogue Angel book 1) by Alex Archer. I love reading. Yet in my mind's eye, it is a vicious cycle, one I dislike. A lot. It is a cycle which I almost always willingly let myself fall into, and then struggle against the tide when I fall head over heels into a bottomless pit, to rid myself of the emptiness, the horrid void feeling that always ensues following my re-emergence ...

Rogue Angel: Destiny begins on a sprint, opening a fascinating window into history and Joan of Arc. Then the mosaic begins with Archer's short, direct sentences, which complement the story well. All in all, the first book in the Rogue Angel series scores a victory for Archer, but not without a few miscues.
