Bing: The Beast In Garden True

The Beast in the Garden by David Baron has long been a favourite of mine. This is my second copy, having worn the first one through with constant revisits. An investigative exploration of the circumstances that led to the first adult human death from a mountain lion attack in over a century, it is a haunting and spine-chilling warning of our inability to respect the wild.

David Baron's The Beast in the Garden betrays some of the most enduring myths of the American West, and the American environmental movement. . . . It's a gripping tale of human naiveté, misguided intentions, and conventional wisdom gone awry. It reads like a novel but it's all true. And it's happening right on the edge of town.” —Howard Berkes, NPR
