Ever since the end of the war, this has been a lodestone for treasure hunters. In 1959, a search party funded by the German weekly Stern succeeded in dredging up chests of counterfeit money with a face value of 72 million British pounds, from the depths of the lakebed. The Austrian government hired an American company of treasure divers to search for the gold purported to be sunken there; it has been working on the project since 2005.

The End Of Money Counterfeiters

Counterfeit money is imitation currency produced without the legal sanction of the state or government, usually in a deliberate attempt to imitate that currency and so as to deceive its recipient. Producing or using counterfeit money is a form of fraud or forgery. The business of counterfeiting money is almost as old as money itself: plated copies (known as Fourrées) have been found of Lydian ...
